WILL SEEK REVENGE.

The Bakers Stirred up Over the Killing of Their Leader.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

People Who Have Taken No Stock in the Feud Are Now on the Bakers' Side—What the Result Will Be Is Hard to Say.

Cincinnati, June 12.—A special to The Times Star from London says the Bakers cried all Sunday night. Their moaning was something most touching. Jim, a son of Tom Baker, is bitter in his denunciation of his enemies. He declares the militia stripped his father of his weapons, that he might be shot down by the Howards without a chance for his life. "Father begged you not to put him so close to White's house," he said to a soldier who was attempting to console him.

The brothers of Tom Baker are troubled. They realize there is nothing to do but to clear themselves of the charges against them. If they get out of jail there is no telling where the feud will end. Many persons advocate the withdrawing of troops and allowing the men to fight it out. They say the action on the part of the governor did not stop the Rowan county feud and the Pulaski county feud.

The killing of Tom Baker will doubtless increase the Clay county feud. Notwithstanding the captivity of Baker's three brothers and his son, there are numerous friends of the dead leader left and scores of other people who heretofore would not express themselves, and they now declare the killing of Tom Baker was an outrage and say the Bakers should hold on to their rifles and never surrender alive. The Garrards, who have been trying to keep out of trouble, are now overwhelmed with indignation by the foul cries of the Howard factions on Saturday and lend their relatives more hearty assistance.

A gentleman returning from Manchester says it would not surprise him if John G. White, notwithstanding the fact that he is accompanied by two fearless men, did not meet with assassination before he returns, but the consensus of opinion is that there will be no move made on the part of the Bakers until the excitement dies down and their friends get a trial at Barboursville.

THE WORSE TO COME.

Baker-Howard Feud Renewed by the KILLING of Tom Baker.

Barboursville, June 12.—The Howards and their allies, the Whites, are in possession of the ground at Manchester in the Baker-Howard feud and a few Bakers or Baker sympathizers are left to molest them. After Tom Baker, the head of the Baker faction, met his tragic death Saturday at the hands of an assassin, whose deed stands as the coldest blooded in the history of Kentucky feudal wars, the state militia under Colonel Williams, with Wiley, Jim, Dee and W. Baker, shorn of their arms, left over the mountain road for Barboursville, where the charges of the murder of Burch Storrs and Wilson Howard will be tried on a change of venue granted by Judge Cook.

Baker, when shot, was in his tent and within 70 feet of the assassin who fired from the porch of Sheriff Beverly White's house diagonally across the street. Baker told his wife that he was tired and would stand up for fresh air, and when he did so a bullet pierced his breast.

Colonel Williams sounded the assembly and the balance of the militia charged White's house. They found the gates locked and doors barred, but the soldiers broke the locks and bars and found inside nothing save a stock of Winchester rifles. Upon examination of these guns, one was found to contain a freshly exploded cartridge.

The people of this place and along the road to Manchester are wild with excitement.

Sheriff Beverly P. White and 10 of his men are under arrest charged with the murder of Tom Baker, leader of his faction in the Baker-Howard feud in the courthouse yard Saturday afternoon. The sheriff is under the same military guard that was sent here in the vain endeavor to protect Baker's life, but Col. Williams has taken every precaution to see that his new prisoner, if found guilty, shall pay the penalty without the premature fate of his alleged victim. Nevertheless, blood for blood is the cry of Baker's relatives, and those who know them say they are bound to get it.

Thorough investigation has established the fact beyond doubt that the shot that killed Baker was fired from the home of Sheriff White. It came from a window in the front room on the left side of the house about 75 yards from where the camp was pitched.

Reinforcements are arriving at Manchester from the hills to the Howards who are in possession of the town. They are exulting fiendishly over their arch enemy by singing doggerel on the death of Tom Baker. Howards expect an attack, but the Bakers, since the murder of Tom Baker, have no leader unless Gen. Garrard, in spite of his great age, should accept that office.

The trouble is by no means over at Manchester, as the factions seem to be cementing more closely and a conflict among the friends of those under arrest is not improbable.

John G. White, accompanied by Hiram Bolin and a man named Prophet, who figured in the French-Eversole feud, have gone to the scene, it is alleged, to take the White end of it.

Bakers Landed at Barboursville.

Barboursville, Ky., June 12.—Troops with Jim and Wiley Baker, arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning to deliver the prisoners to the county jailer and going into camp at the courthouse. Nothing of importance happened en route from Manchester, except that Wiley Baker made an attempt to escape.

Mrs. Baker says she will train her 11 sons so that the height of their ambition will be to kill a White or Howard. Jim and Wiley are quiet and refuse to talk.

Another Kentucky Feud.

Middlesboro, June 12.—Thomas W. Mester, a member of the Taylor faction of the Lee-Taylor feud in Harlan county, was killed by a man named Lee, a member of the Lee clan. More trouble is likely to follow.

"KING OF HANGMEN."

George Maledon Has Fallen a Victim to Superstition or Insanity.

Springdale, Ark., June 12.—Haunted by the ghosts of 88 murderers and unable to sleep on account of his uncanny tormentors, George Maledon, the king of hangmen, is ending his days in poverty and misery on a little farm two miles south of this place.

Maledon was for many years executioner at the Fort Smith Federal court, where many of the most noted and desperate criminals that for years infested the Indian Territory, were brought to trial before Judge Parker. In that capacity Maledon officiated at the hanging of 88 men and won for himself the sobriquet of the "King of Hangmen." He has hung more men than any other officer in the history of the United States, and through his long experience became an expert in his line.

When the Indian Territory was given courts of its own, Maledon started a grocery store at Fort Smith, Ark., and accumulated some property. This he later disposed of and traveled over the country exhibiting himself as the "King of Hangmen." The venture was not a financial success and his money was soon all gone. He then settled on a little farm near here and has at last fallen a victim to superstition or insanity. Every night is made miserable to him by the imaginary ghosts of the men hanged. To keep the ghosts away, bright lights are kept burning at his house at night, and friends guard his bedside.

LYNCHED BY NEGROES.

They Take a Negro from Jail and Hang Him for Assault.

Sardis, Miss., June 12.—Simon Brooks, colored, was lynched by a mob of 500 negroes near here Saturday night. He was taken from jail. The crime which was thus avenged was one of the most atrocious in the criminal annals of the state. Saturday night a negress named Armistead, while returning from a shopping tour to her home, was assaulted by Brooks and another negro. The woman was outraged, her throat was cut and she was severely beaten about the head and her jaws were tightly tied to prevent breathing. Her body was then concealed in rubbish. The woman rallied sufficiently to give the alarm and the names of her assailants. Part of the goods taken from the woman was later found in a trunk belonging to Brooks.

The mob, which was composed entirely of negroes, did its work very quietly. The white people knew nothing of the affair until an hour after it occurred.

SHOT THE BRIDE.

Members of Serenading Party Fatally Wounds Mrs. Ray Higgins.

Wichita, Kas., June 12.—While a party of young men were serenading Mr. and Mrs. Ray Higgins, near Watauga, O. T., Friday night the bride and groom of two hours appeared on the front porch and asked the serenaders to leave.

The charivari party, composed of about 20 friends of the young married couple refused to go. Instead, continued to make deafening noise by beating on pans and firing shotguns. One of the party, Harry Randall, deliberately pointed his gun at the young couple and fired. The bride's face and breast was filled with buckshot. She fell fatally injured, shot through the lungs, and died an hour later. The groom was shot in the face but not fatally.

After the accident the charivari party fled. No arrests have been made yet. A small brother of the bride was also wounded, but not seriously.

Fatally Shot by a Policeman.

Chicago, June 12.—While attempting to arrest three men who were caught in the act of robbery, Policemen Victor Stromberg shot and fatally injured Mrs. Nellie Leeman, who was on the opposite side of the street. He seized one of the robbers and when the other two started to run he drew his revolver and commenced firing. In the struggle to hold to one of the robbers, however, the shots went wild, one of them striking Mrs. Leeman in the groin.

One Killed and Seven Injured.

Bristol, R. I., June 12.—A revised list of the casualties resulting from the explosion of the flashlight apparatus at the launching of Columbia Saturday night, shows that one boy was killed, one possibly fatally injured and six severely injured.

These wise old saws apply to the new fast train service now in effect via the Great Rock Island Route, while not the short line everywhere, we "get there," which is the main point to be considered.

A whole business day saved is one argument. A maximum of comfort by reason of through service, modern equipment; rock ballast; in short, an up-to-date railway, are several other arguments to assist you in deciding how and via what route to purchase tickets.

A. AND M. COMMENCEMENT.

TWENTY-THIRD YEAR CLOSSES WITH AN ATTENDANCE OF VISITORS

LARGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

Commencement Sermon—Exercises Yesterday—Program for To-Day.

The exercises of the twenty-third annual commencement of the agricultural and mechanical college of Texas began Sunday with more visitors present than have attended the first day's exercises at any time for years. Among the distinguished visitors present are Governor Joseph D. Sayers and Adjutant General Tom Scurry of Austin; Hon. R. L. Henry and Dr. Wilson, president of Baylor Female college, Waco; Hon. Frank Holland of Dallas; Rev. H. M. Whaling, of Austin.

Year by year the college shows marked improvement and even now the writer doubts if there is a prettier or more perfectly cultivated spot in Texas. With the additions in buildings and other improvements provided for by the last legislature, the magnificence, comfort and convenience of the place will be enhanced very greatly, and it will be only a question of a few years until this institution will be placed on a footing where it will be able to accomodate all the young men who desire to avail themselves of its benefits, and then indeed will it become the pride of the state.

The success of the work here during the past year has been highly satisfactory and President L. L. Foster informs our representative that the school closes with a larger number of students in attendance than ever in the history of the college at the end of a term.

The administration of the affairs of the college during the past year has also been marked by progress and advancement. President Foster is an incessant and tireless worker and all his marked administrative ability and marvelous energy are enlisted in the work.

Rev. H. M. Whaling, pastor of the Tenth Street Methodist church of Austin, preached the commencement sermon. The sermon proved to be the rare intellectual treat which the well known powers of the preacher led his hearers to expect. Eternal Life was his theme, and it was handled in a way to impress many grand and beautiful thoughts in the minds of his hearers.

The program yesterday was carried out under some difficulties, owing to the rain. The exercises consisted of inspection of departments, exhibition of live stock, apparatus and appliances, etc; the joint celebration of literary societies. The review of the battalion by Gov. Sayers, and company and individual competition drills were postponed until this morning.

PROGRAM FOR TODAY.

The Basket Worm.

A few days ago a number of specimens of the worm which has been destroying the trees in the court house yard were sent to R. H. Price, professor of horticulture at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, with a request that they be examined and advice given as to what they were and how they could be killed. The following reply was received Saturday:

"Replying to yours of May 31 I wish to state that the insect mentioned is what is commonly known as the 'Basket Worm.' You can kill them by spraying the trees with a preparation composed of one pound of Paris Green and 150 gallons of water. The worms will not die at once, but will die as soon as they eat the leaves which have been sprayed with the poison." —Brenham Banner.

A NOVEL LAWSUIT.

Heirs Apply to Court for the Setting Aside of Provision of a Will.

Fort Dodge, Ia., June 12.—New developments have come to light in the matter of the bequest by Henry Strong of $10,000 for the purpose of founding a Universalist church in Fort Dodge. Henry Strong was at one time a prominent and wealthy resident of Fort Dodge. At his death he left $3000 in trust for the purpose of founding a Universalist church society in Fort Dodge. This was left with Webb Vincent, who was to care for the money until it had reached the sum of $10,000. Other contributions were also invested.

At this time there was no Universalist organization in Fort Dodge, and during that time that the money has been left in trust no organization has been attempted for the purpose of securing the money. A petition has been filed by Henry Harrison of Stillwater, Minn., as trustee for the heirs, asking for a decree of court to have the money, which has now reached the sum of $11,000, distributed among the heirs, of whom Mr. Vincent is one.

No sooner was the announcement of the filing of the petition made public than the Universalists of the county, of whom F. J. Blake, representative from this district, is one, formed a Universalist organization and filed articles of incorporation, with the evident object of contesting the distribution of the money among the heirs, and for the purpose of obtaining the bequest.

TORNADO IN IOWA.

Three Members of One Family Dead and One Other Will Die.

Sioux City, Ia., June 12.—A tornado at 5:30 o'clock Sunday evening struck two miles east of the little town of Salix, 15 miles east of here and killed three people outright and more will die.

The dead are:

John Malloy, farmer, his wife, and Harry Malloy, a 16-year-old son.

Miss Malloy, an 18-year-old daughter, had her skull fractured and is not expected to live.

Thomas and Patrick Malloy are badly hurt.

So far as can be learned no one else was killed or injured.

Wild rumors are afloat of more damage in Woodbury county, but this cannot be verified.

At Homer, Neb., a revival tent was blown over and an unknown woman fatally injured. This is the sixth tornado in this district this season.

Hanna Escapes Death.

Cleveland, O., June 12.—Senator Hanna narrowly escaped being run down by one of his own street cars. He was running for a West Side car, and did not notice a cable train coming around the curve. The switchman shouted and the gripman rang his gong violently. It is hard to control a grip car once started around a curve. The grip car barely missed striking the senator. He escaped, however, but street car employees who saw the occurrence said that the escape seemed miraculous. All expected for a moment to see him go under the wheels.

Murder and Suicide.

Fort Smith, Ark., June 12.—John Moore, recently a member of the Salvation army here, became jealous of his wife, alleging that she was receiving too much attention from a captain of the Salvation army. Moore and his wife separated. Sunday he met her and the captain taking a walk together. He drew a pistol and fired two shots at the captain. Neither took effect. Then Moore shot his wife dead and with the fourth and last bullet killed himself. Moore has been a laundryman. Little is known of him here.

Mrs. Davis Is Ill.

Montpelier, Vt., June 12.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, the widow of the late president of the Confederacy, is a visitor in this city, where she will remain for some weeks. She is in rather poor health, and wants to try the recuperative effect of Vermont mountain air. She arrived on Thursday night in company with Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Burgess of New York, who have opened "Redston," their summer residence here, for the season.

Masked Robbers Crack a Safe.

Clinton, Mo., June 12.—The safe in the Frisco depot here was blown open by a gang of robbers. They secured $300. There were six men in the gang. They seized the nightwatchman and locked him up in a box car near by. No clew to their identity has been discovered. They wore handkerchiefs as masks.

Yellow Fever Spreading.

Vera Cruz, Mex., June 12.—Yellow fever continues to create a panic as it is unusually virulent this year. The mortality the past week has been more than 60 per cent. The fever has gone up the line of railway to Cordoba, where there have been several cases and some deaths.

Heavy Rains in Mississippi.

Winona, June 12.—Terrific rains have fallen in this section of the Mississippi valley for the past 18 hours accompanied by a heavy electric disturbance. Bridges and dams have been washed away in every direction and roads are impassable. Railway travel is completely at a standstill.

No Rain for Nine Weeks.

St. Joseph, La., June 12.—It is nine weeks since rain has fallen in this parish. Scattered showers fell during the past three days, but they were not sufficient to melt the clouds or bring up the cotton. Not 50 per cent of the cotton is up to a stand. The rest of the land will have to be planted in peas or abandoned for this year.

Fine showers fell in this and Madison counties yesterday. In Bryan, the rain was too light to do much good unless followed up, but the prospect is fine for continuation. In this connection, The Eagle is in receipt of the following:

HE SLEW HIS FATHER.

George Tubbs Held Under Bond of $7000

at Poplar Bluff.

Poplar Bluff, Mo., June 12.—On the morning of May 31 while Robert Tubbs, a farmer living 15 miles northwest of here, was sitting in his house, fastening his shoes, his son George, aged 18, slipped up from behind and fired both barrels of a shotgun into his father's back and head, killing him instantly. The murderer then went to the house of his grandfather, James Tubbs, and later came to town and surrendered to Sheriff Turner.

In the preliminary trial Saturday the testimony showed that Robert Tubbs was very cruel to his family; that he often beat the children unmercifully, and whipped his wife; that a few days before his death he had beaten his son George with a log chain, and on the night before had threatened to kill him (George). Justice Johnson fixed George's bond at $7000.

FUNERAL OF NICHOLS.

Commander of the Monadnock Given a Naval Burial at Cavite.

HIS DEMISE VERY SAD

It Occurred Just as His Hopes Were Being Realized After Waiting so Long—He Died of Sun-stroke at Paranaque.

Manila, June 12.—The funeral of Captain Henry Nichols, commander of the monitor Monadnock, who died from sunstroke on Saturday, took place at Cavite Sunday with appropriate naval ceremonies. The officers of the fleet were present, and flags on all of the vessels were halfmasted.

The sudden death of Captain Nichols, was particularly sad, because it occurred just a moment when the result for which he had hoped and worked for months was about to be realized, namely, the capture of Paranaque and its occupation by American forces.

The Monadnock has been lying off Paranaque for two months past under fire from the rebels almost daily. The heat there was intense and officers and men of the Monadnock suffered greatly.

The commander-in-chief offered to retire the Monadnock from this trying duty, and replace her by another ship, but Capt.

Nichols preferred to remain, declaring he did not want to leave the post until Paranaque fell and the coast from there to Cavite was cleared of rebels.

The heat Saturday was most severe and the monitor was engaged all day shelling the trenches at Paranaque, and the rebels fleeing south through Las Piñas, and also watching the American troops closing in upon the towns.

Captain Nichols was overcome by heat at noon and retired to his cabin, where he received frequent reports of the operations and gave directions for several hours.

He became much worse at 3 o'clock and lost consciousness and expired at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Several hours before his death he expressed gratification at the way events were progressing, and remarked to an officer:

"We have got the rebels there at last."

VOLUNTEERS SATISFIED.

They Are Not Grumbling, but Contented in the Philippines.

Wabash, Ind., June 12.—Phil Smith, of this city, a corporal in the United States army in the Philippines, has returned home on a furlough.

Corporal Smith was in the Fourth regiment, and at the time he left was serving in the trenches around Pasa.

Contradicting the report circulated by the opponents of the administration that the soldiers are all anxious to come home, he says that almost to a man the men are satisfied, and declares that the government has done the right thing in holding the islands, and in endeavoring to restore order.

The men are animated with a purpose to uphold President McKinley at all points, and there is absolutely no grumbling or complaint, or rather they complain because they are not urged forward to attack the Filipinos.

The Fourth regiment, two weeks after its arrival at Manila, was divided up and assigned to garrison duty, and thus had an opportunity to rest up and become acclimated. Later they were sent to Pasa, where, behind earthworks, they were under fire from the enemy constantly day and night for three weeks.

He gives the natives credit for bravery and intelligence, which is denied them by other observers, and says he is personally aware that when any of the men in the fighting line show a disposition to retire they are flogged back into line and are in some cases shot.

SENSATIONAL SCHOOL MATTERS.

Juneau, Alaska, via Seattle, June 12.

The grand jury of the United States district court for Alaska made a sensational report on the conduct of educational matters in Alaska.

The report says between 1884 and 1897 inclusive, $415,000 appropriated by congress for educational purposes, Alaska, which if it had been judiciously expended, ought to provide a school system commensurate with the requirements and would have done so had not the general agent of education spent the money in useless jaunts and establishment of schools at places where but few white people lived.

The report accuses him of making false statements in his official reports, and concludes by asking the secretary of the interior to relieve Alaska of this official.

HISTORIC ELM TREE FELLED.

Toledo, June 12.—The elm tree at Fort Meigs, made famous by the campaign of William Henry Harrison against the Indians, has fallen, and the historic spot is not now marked.

It was in this tree that the scout, Paul Navarre, discovered the Indian sharpshooters, who were picking off the Americans, and he shot and killed the men who were destroying the pickets. An effort will be made to mark the place where the tree stood.

BIG ADVANCE IN WAGES.

Birmingham, Ala., June 12.—Two thousand rolling mill men and steel workers in this district received an advance of 25 per cent in wages, the result of an agreement just reached between the Alamatagated Association of Iron and Steel workers and manufacturers at Detroit. Because of the large number of orders on hand the rolling mills will probably not close down even for repairs during the summer.

BETTER PRACTICE.

All Batteries Given a More Liberal Use of Ammunition.

Washington, June 12.—With a view to increasing the efficiency of the artillerists manning the batteries which protect the shores of the United States, instructions have been given by the war department for additional practice with the great guns.

Each battery of heavy artillery is authorized beginning June 1 to fire yearly in addition to its present allowance of 10 rounds of 8-inch ammunition and five rounds of 10-inch ammunition expended under previous orders limited the rounds to 15 for the 3-inch breechloading rifle, 10 for the 8-inch muzzle loading converted rifle, three each for the 8-inch breechloading rifle, the 10-inch breechloading rifle and the 12-inch breechloading and eight for the 15-inch smooth bore.

The departure of Brigadier General Schwan for the Philippines will mean the dissolution of the board which recommended the rewards given to officers and enlisted men who performed distinguished services in the war with Spain. Recommendations for awarding brevets, medals of honor and certificates of merit to officers and men for service against the Filipinos are being received. Before the war it was customary to refer such recommendations to the major general commanding, but this matter was taken from General Miles and placed in charge of the Schwan board. It is understood the question of referring the recommendations of General Miles is being discussed.

NAVAL OFFICERS' SALARIES.

Washington, June 12.—The navy department has issued a circular fixing the salaries of naval officers under the naval personnel bill. Admiral Dewey will receive $13,500 whether on duty at sea or on shore. The senior rear admirals pay is fixed at $7500 at sea and $6355 on shore. Rear Admiral Schley is in this list, but only received the minimum amount as he is assigned to shore duty. The junior rear admirals receive $5500 while on sea duty, and $4655 on shore. Rear Admiral Sampson is in the junior list, but has a command at sea, receives the maximum pay. Should Schley be given a command at sea, he would receive $2000 more than Sampson, but as it is now his pay amounts to but $875 more. Captains receive $3500 at sea and $2975 on shore.
